

DOUMA LEADER TOURS

Head of Peasant Party Will Agitate in America.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Alexis Aladyn, leader of the peasant party in the Russian Douma, will arrive here Thursday to champion freedom and justice in Russia. He will deliver addresses, among other places, at Yale and Harvard. Associated with him will be Nicholas Tichaykovsky, one of the figures in the Russian revolutionary movement from 1870 to 1875. Aladyn will be met by a delegation of more or less prominent American men and women.

Subsequently a banquet will be given in Carnegie Hall in his favor, by American sympathizers. Although born a peasant, Aladyn studied at the University of Kazan, from which he was expelled for voicing liberal opinions. He then organized trades unions in the vicinity of Kazan for which he was arrested. He was sentenced to four years imprisonment to be followed by eight years exile in North Russia. He escaped to Germany, but returned when the Czar's manifesto was issued. He was elected a deputy to the Douma and founded the peasant and labor party. He is its present leader, although prevented by the government from being nominated to the second douma.

LA GRIPPE AND PNEUMONIA.

The editor of the Memphis, Tenn., "Times" writes: "In my opinion Foley's Honey and Tar is the best remedy for coughs, colds and lung trouble, and to my own personal knowledge Foley's Honey and Tar has accomplished many permanent cures that have been little short of marvellous." Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow packages. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

WORK OF ENEMY.

Japanese Believe American War Talk Due to Foreign Influence.

TOKIO, Feb. 13.—Despite the apparent hitch in the conference between President Roosevelt and the San Francisco school board authorities, confidence continues in the President's final success.

Reports from abroad received here from a credible source agree in attributing the talk of the war with America as an anti-Japanese agitation, the work of emissaries of a power hostile to Japan, ever watching to victimize and disparage her power.

HUNTING FOR TROUBLE.

"I've lived in California 20 years and am still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains, or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure" writes Charles Walters, of Alleghany, Sierra Co. No use hunting Mr. Walters; it cures every case. Guaranteed at Chas. Rogers' drug store, 25c.

VOTE ON STRIKE.

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—The Union Telegraph operators employed by the Western Union Telegraph Company in Chicago will take a vote next Sunday on the question of going on a strike to enforce certain demands that have been made on the company. The operators demand a wage increase of ten percent and the reinstatement of several of their fellow workers who the union officials declare, were discharged for being union men.

MANY POSSIBILITIES

ator Dick, state chairman, controls the party organization, but all over the state the contending forces are preparing to wrest this control from them, if possible in the next state convention.

There has been but little said about "Uncle Joe" Cannon, the Speaker of the House, lately, but there has nothing happened to indicate that this hale and hearty old man has withdrawn himself from the Presidential field. His friends are working on the theory that it is not wise to develop a Presidential boom too strongly so far in advance of the harvest time that it may be nipped by some untimely frost. Illinois may be counted solidly for the Speaker and his power in the House is such that a number of states may be swung into line for him without any very great amount of effort, and the names of some of the members close to the Speaker and sharing with him the control of the House should indicate a number of Western states that ought reasonably to be counted as sure for the Speaker if he openly announces his candidacy.

No Republican list of possible Presidential candidates would be complete without the name of Senator La Follette of Wisconsin. His friends assert that he will be a candidate, and although there are no present indications that Mr. LaFollette has absolute control of his own state, he is a politician of such marked astuteness, that he probably must be reckoned with as a factor in the Presidential equation, although there is a wide difference of opinion as to the extent of the LaFollette influence in the Republican party outside of one or two of the Northwestern states.

Going back to the Democratic party it may be said that if there is talk of any prominent member of that party, other than Mr. Bryan, it centers about Governor Folk of Missouri. The one thing that appears certain is that the Democratic candidate is to be a Western man. During the present session so many prominent men have not hesitated to declare their allegiance to Mr. Bryan that at present it seems futile to discuss the possibility of any other candidate. The only contest, apparently, in the party will be the vice presidential candidate, and for that office there have been no suggestions at all. The Democrats are not worrying over their candidate. The Republicans are badly divided. Not only is this true as to candidates, but the signs all point to a serious conflict over the platform.
